Sales Tax Filing Extended - Mortgage Payments Delayed

The Governor released two Executive Orders on 3/21 which require the following:

Executive Order 202.8: Directs NYS Department of Taxation and Finance to extend the filing period for sales and use taxes due March 20, 2020 (for the period ending February 29, 2020), for a period of 60 days.

Executive Order 202.9: Directs banks to delay mortgage payments for 90 days for any person or business who is experiencing hardship due to the COVID-19 Disaster. The order requires the Superintendent of the Department of Financial Services to promulgate emergency regulations to ensure that applications for the forbearance be widely available to consumers, and approved in all "reasonable and prudent circumstances".
