

The Columbia-Greene Economic and Workforce State of the Counties

Wednesday, September 24th | 8:00 AM - 10:00 AM
Columbia-Greene Community College

The Columbia Greene Economic and Workforce State of the Counties is the first in a series of events, Pathways to Progress: A Series of Workforce and Community Roundtables for Employers and Community Partners. This event will outline the economic state of our counties and how the local workforce is an essential part of economic growth.

Discussion Topics Include:

Recent labor market analysis • Federal legislation impacts • NY State ALICE report findings • Employee retention strategies • Engaging job seekers with employment barriers

Featured Presenter:

Adam Bosch, President/CEO
Hudson Valley Pattern for Progress

Panel Discussion Featuring:

James Hannahs - Director of Economic Development, Tourism, and Planning for Greene County

Mike Tucker - President and CEO of Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Amanda Karch - Executive Director of the Columbia-Greene Workforce Development Board

Register Here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/the-columbia-greene-economic-state-of-the-counties-tickets-1635684870479?aff=oddtcreator>

For questions or more information, please email Danielle Palleschi at Danielle.Palleschi@sunycgcc.edu

